

Dr Nikolopoulou Vasiliki (Vicky) is School Psychologist (MSc, PhD) and a member of Laboratory Teaching Staff at the Psychology Department of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens (NKUA) coordinating the internship of MSc students in School Psychology Program. She has great experience working for many years in state schools of Secondary education and she has been specialized in Systemic interventions at school systems. Her main interests include systemic psychosocial interventions at school, educational leadership, well-being and socio-psychological characteristics of children/ adolescents with high abilities. She has published several psychology papers and participated in several Greek and international congresses.

(e-mail: viknikolop@psych.uoa.gr, <https://orcid.org/0000-0001-7714-4756>)